PERSONAL PROFILE

With 6 years of experience, I specialize in building responsive, accessible, and user-centered web applications using React, Redux, Vue, and Vuex. I write clean, maintainable code and transform complex ideas into intuitive experiences. I actively participate in the entire product lifecycle, from shaping features and collaborating with product managers, designers and backend engineers to delivering thoughtful, scalable implementations. I enjoy collaborating in cross-functional teams, value feedback, and bring curiosity, care, and a user-first mindset to every project.
